CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

"The time is always right to do what is right".

(Martin Luther King)

In a few years, social responsibility in business has become a practice of great interest.

Solar Innova has always been a sensitive and accountable to company social problems.

Since our company contribute to improving human rights and the welfare of society. We were able to evolve and adapt to market demands, listening to the needs of our customers, shareholders, employees and society is constantly changing: both the company and the team, we intend to collaborate with social environments .

Solar Innova understands CSR as the active and voluntary corporate sustainability, or other social commitments, economic and environmental: for this reason in 2012 born "Innova Solar Solidarity".

"Sola Innova Solidarity" voluntary donation is used to improve the living conditions of the poorest countries so participate in the construction of a more just world.

Through "Innova Solar Solidarity" we want to show our social commitment to the most disadvantaged.

As an active corporate citizen, we believe our social responsibility is also part of our success.
